

Centre for Contemporary Studies

Indian Institute of Science

Presents a series of four lectures during March 2006

Venue: Seminar Hall, CCS, IISc

Title	Speaker	Date & Time
Retirement and a career in Scottish archives, the story of Digital Imaging at the National Archives of Scotland	Mr. Rob Mildren Head of Information Communication Technologies, The National Archives of Scotland, United Kingdom	21st March '06, Tuesday 4:00 pm
High Culture from the Commerce of Cotton: the formation of the John Ryland Library in Manchester	Dr. Stella Butler Head of Special collections and Principal Keeper, The John Rylands University Library, The University of Manchester, United Kingdom	27th March '06, Monday 4:00 pm
The British Library and its South Asian Treasures	Dr. Penny Brook Asia, Pacific and Africa Collections, The British Library, United Kingdom	28th March '06, Tuesday 4:00 pm
Creating the Modern World: The Royal Institution of Great Britain, 1799-2006	Dr. Frank A. J. L. James Professor of the History of Science, The Royal Institution, London, England	29th March '06, Wednesday 4:00 pm

Tea/Coffee will be served at 3:30 pm

URL: <http://ces.iisc.ernet.in/hpg/ragh/ccs/Welcome.html>